

JIWAJI UNIVERSITY'S SEMINAR
ON
CURRENT TRENDS IN RESEARCH AND ITS BENEFIT TO THE SOCIETY
November, 29 - 30, 2016

Objectives

Jiwaji University, Gwalior has prepared a 'Research Policy' for development of research activities in the university. All Schools of Studies/ Departments/ Centers are actively participating in the research work in their individual capacity. The present seminar is being organized with the view to review the research work being undertaken in the university in different fields by various departments. It will not only provide a platform for scholars to interact and understand about each other's work but also help to generate some new ideas for collaborative research.

Thematic areas of Seminar

The seminar would comprise all fields of research work being carried out under various faculties in all teaching departments of Jiwaji university.

Participants

The seminar is intended for all teachers/ research scholars of all Schools of Studies/ University Teaching Departments/ Centers, engaged in research work.

Abstract

The entire programme would comprise lectures by some teachers of the university followed by Oral and Poster presentations by research scholars. Participants are requested to send their abstracts for both types of presentations.
