About the Institute

To have qualitative human resource development in the Country, there should be appropriate efforts to bridge the gap between demand and supply of Human Resources in printing industry as the developing economy needs more skilled work force.

Keeping this in view, the NitiAyog has laid a special emphasis on KaushalVikasprogram in higher education. To fulfill this aim, the setting up of community college at university level was recommended. This will serve multiple needs of the society and country at large.

Our mission is to cater the needs of the printing industries with qualitative skill manpower backed by theoretical, demonstrative, OJT and industrial visits.

The students can be entrusted with state-of-art skill development in printing industry blended with management techniques to face modern business challenges.
