Dated: 22.12.2014

Important Notice Regarding NET December, 2014

All the candidates who have applied for NET December, 2014 and paid the fee are informed:-

1. That they should verify their center/sub-center allotment on the website of the concerned coordinating institution and appear in the examination only at the allotted center/sub-center of examination. In case, a candidate does not find his/her Roll No. in the center/sub-center allotment, he/she should immediately contact the coordinator of the concerned coordinating institution.
2. No candidate is allowed to appear in the center/sub-center of examination other than that allotted to him/her by the concerned coordinating institution. Similarly, no candidate is allowed to appear in the subject other than that filled by him/her in the online application form, the details of which are available on the website www.cbse.net.nic.in as well as on the website of concerned coordinating institution.
3. The candidates whose copy of admission form and attendance slip is not received at the coordinating institution are directed to carry a copy of these documents with them on 28.12.2014 and submit it to the invigilator in the examination room before commencement of examination. The invigilators will collect the admission form and attendance slip from these candidates and will hand over it to the examination superintendent/coordinator of the coordinating institution.

It is noticed that some candidates have not paid the fee but have generated fake application form, attendance slip and admission card, therefore, all such candidates who have not paid the fee are informed that they are not allowed to enter the examination center/sub-center.
