Subject: Mandatory Course work for Ph.D. Students.

Dear Professors

The counseling / Interview for the admission in Ph.D. programs 2015-16 have been completed by the DRC of respective subjects. The lists have already been uploaded at the Jiwaji University Gwalior web site Jiwaji.edu. Almost all the supervisors have given responsibility to enrich the students from your esteemed knowledge so that they can pursue their research in right direction.

As research is a vital component of academic activity which provides name and fame to any University. It also shape the student`s mind so that she/he can contribute in the creation of the knowledge. The University forces the bright future of its students under your able guidance. I therefore request you to spare some of your valuable time to provide able guidance to the students allotted to you so that they can complete their goal within the stipulated time.

Hope under your able guidance the students will move in right direction.

Thanks

Subject: Course work classes for Ph.D. Students.

Dear Sir,

The counseling / Interview for the admission in Ph.D. programs 2015-16 have been completed by the DRC of respective subjects. The lists have already been uploaded at the Jiwaji University Gwalior web site Jiwaji.edu. Almost all the supervisors have given responsibility to enrich the students from their esteemed knowledge so that they can pursue their research in right direction.

The Ph.D. course work classes will be held in your School of Studies / Colleges under the supervision of Professors of School of Studies / colleges. They have been appointed as course coordinators / Asst. Coordinators for these classes. They will arrange the lectures, keep the attendance of the students and look after all the matters so that the classes will run smoothly. They will also take care that the rules and regulations of the concern School of Studies / Colleges will be followed by the students.

After the completion of the stipulated number of lectures (65) the examination forms of the students will also be verified by them. These forms are then forwarded to the university after getting countersigned by the Head / Principal of the Institutions.

Kindly extend all possible cooperation in the conduction of these classes. The university will pay remunerations and contingencies expenditures to all concern as per university rules.

Thanks
