

SCHOOL OF STUDIES IN POLITICAL SCIENCE AND PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION

Programs Offered:

M.A. Political Science (Two Years/ Four Semesters)- NEP-2020

M.A. Public Administration (Two Years/ Four Semesters)- NEP-2020

Profile of the Department:

The Department was established in 1994 as a centre for higher studies and research, initiating postgraduate programs in Political Science and Public Administration. The School also introduced professional programs to enhance career-oriented learning.

The School recognizes its social responsibility in disseminating knowledge and providing training on issues related to societal problems, national integration, and social development. It also believes that for a critical understanding of social sciences and social justice, students need exposure to areas such as Political Economy, International Politics, Grassroots Politics, and Human Rights.

While structuring the courses, an effort has been made to include the “hardcore essentials” of Political Science and Public Administration on one hand, and the “interfacial” aspects of related disciplines through an interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary approach on the other.
